PREFER, WOULD PREFER, WOULD RATHER

Each sentence has one mistake. Write the correct sentence.

1. I prefer study in the library when I need to focus on picking up new grammar.
2. She prefers reading notes than listen to recordings.
3. We'd prefer starting the meeting later in the afternoon.
4. He would rather to work from home than on site on Fridays
5. I'd prefer stay in the office until I finish this report.
6. They not prefer work after 6 p.m.
7. I'd rather take an online course that going to classes every day.
8. She prefer to study with her friends than study alone.
9. We would rather call this meeting off than to have the staff incomplete.
10. He'd prefer to not checking emails during his break.
11. I prefer to learning by doing than reading about it.
12. They would rather not to interrumpt them while they are presenting.

LIVEWORKSHEETS