

Read the texts and match the texts and the pictures.

1. Armadillo lives in America and Brazil. This animal has got a strong body and a long tail. It hasn't got any hair but it has got big ears and short legs. Armadillo is black and brown. It can sleep up to 16 hours a day, curl into a tight ball and swim. They eat insects, fruit, eggs, and small animals.

2. Capybaras live in Latin America. They like water and live near it. They eat leaves, fruits and vegetables. They are brown, and they have got small eyes, small ears and a big nose. Capybaras can run very fast and swim very well.

3. Kiwi is a bird but it can't fly because it hasn't got any wings! Kiwi is brown, it has a long nose that helps kiwi find something to eat in the ground. Kiwis eat lives, berries and worms. It hasn't got any feathers but it's got soft hair. It lives in New Zealand.

4. Platypus is a very unusual animal. It looks like a bird and an animal together. It has got an unusual nose called "bill", small eyes and a big tail. It can swim well but it can only stay underwater for 30 to 140 seconds. Platypus eats insects, shellfish and worms.