Andre's story

When I was a child, I always waited for Independence Day. My father used to ask me to watch a parade together. We saw it from our front yard. I remember how attractive the parade was. In the first line of the parade, I saw the people dressed up uniquely. Some people wore Indonesian heroes' costumes. Some others dressed like local ghosts. They were scary but they were funny, too.

Next, I remembered that a lot of people marched in the second line. They waved a mini Indonesian flag. They walked around the village and sang the 'Hari Merdeka' song. At last, I also saw that many children rode their bicycles in the parade. They decorated their bicycles creatively. I didn't join the parade as I was too shy.

10. What did Andre always wait when he was a child?
- A. remembered that a lot of people.
 - B. joined the parade.
 - C. also saw that many children.
 - D. waited for Independence Day.
11. They were scary but they were funny, too.
The underlined word has similar meaning with
- A. happy
 - B. interesting
 - C. frightening
 - D. boring
12. Why did Andre not join the parade? Because
- A. he was a student.
 - B. he was too shy.
 - C. he had no parade costume.
 - D. he walked around the village.
13. Galang ... to the beach with his friends last weekend.
- A. going
 - B. gone
 - C. went
 - D. go

Once upon a time on a big farm, a Mother Duck sat on her nest. She had to keep her six eggs warm until they hatched. At last, the eggs began to crack. One by one, five yellow ducklings came out of the eggs. They shook their wings and said, "Quack, quack". Then, they walked gracefully.

"Look at all of you!" said Mother Duck with joy. "You are all so cute!"

She counted one, two, three, four, five. "Oh, dear! I should have six ducklings!" Mother Duck was worried. But one large egg was still in the nest. It was a little stubborn. So, Mother Duck sat on her nest again and waited some more.

The next day, the big egg cracked open. A shy duckling came out. He was not yellow! He was gray and bigger than others. But he was weak and it walked with a funny wobble.

One day, Mother duck and her six ducklings went to the river. Each yellow duckling jumped into the river and swam behind Mother Duck. The Ugly Duckling jumped in and started to paddle, too. "I can swim, Mother!" said the Ugly Duckling. He was proud.

After swimming, the yellow ducklings started to play. They jumped and splashed in muddy puddles. They shook their muddy wings and they laughed and laughed. The Ugly Duckling tried to play with his brothers and sisters, too. "I can jump and shake my wings!" exclaimed the Ugly Duckling. He was so happy. But, the yellow ducklings yelled, "Go away!"

The Ugly Duckling walked with his head down. He was sad.

The Ugly Duckling went to his mum and said, "Mom, they don't want to play with me. Am I too ugly?"

Two years ago, I had a tour of Kota Tua or Jakarta's Old City. I went there with my team after we participated in a wheelchair basketball competition in Jakarta. The competition was conducted to celebrate Indonesia's Independence Day. To get to Kota Tua, we took the MRT and TransJakarta.

When we arrived at Kota Tua, a security guard checked our temperature and asked us to keep our masks on. She also made sure we checked in using our Peduli Lindungi.

The first place we explored was the Jakarta History Museum. Then, we went to the Maritime Museum, Bank Museum, and Puppetry Museum. My favorite one was the Jakarta History Museum. I learned a lot about Batavia or known as Jakarta at present.

The next destination was Fatahillah square. Some people rode colorful bikes and some others took pictures of Dutch Architecture. The last place was the oldest building in Kota Tua named Batavia cafe to grab something to eat. After all, I enjoyed the tour, especially since the facilities were friendly for people with disabilities like me.

36. What did the security guard do when the author arrived at Kota Tua?
- A. Guided them to the museum.
 - B. Checked their temperature.
 - C. Asked them to remove their masks.
 - D. Made sure they checked in with Peduli Lindungi.
37. Which places did the author and their team visit in Kota Tua?
- A. Fatahillah Square
 - B. Jakarta History Museum
 - C. National Monument
 - D. Ragunan Zoo
38. What is the meaning of the word "tour" in the text?
- A. journey
 - B. vacation
 - C. business
 - D. excursion

Today, my school held an Independence Day celebration event. It welcomed students from every grade to participate in many fun games, such as tug of war, krupuk race, sack race, tandem race, and the marble in spoon race. Many students participated, which made all the games so exciting.

In the beginning, I participated in the marble-in-spoon race. It was a very tight game between me and Galang. I almost beat him at the beginning of the race, but he was so fast and steady. He could even run with it. He came first and I came second. It was hard to beat Galang in this game.

The next game was a tug of war, sack race, and tandem race. All the games were held at the same time. I saw Andre participate in the sack race. At first, he led the race, but suddenly he fell in the middle of the race. But finally, he came second. It was so sad that he couldn't finish first. Meanwhile, Pipit participated in a tandem race with our friends. Her team came third. It was not too bad.

The last game was the krupuk race. Once again I met Galang in the final. The fun part was I finished first and he finished after me. I finished my krupuk with three or four bites. It was a joyful day at my school. Everyone put a smile on their faces. I was delighted. At the end of the event, my class was announced as the grand champion of the whole competition.

42. What games were there in the Independence Day celebration event?
