

A Day in Emma's Life

Instructions: Fill in the blanks using the correct form of the verb in parentheses. Pay attention to whether it should be -ing or to + infinitive.

Emma is a university student who has a very busy life. She tries hard to balance studying, hobbies, and social activities.

She usually starts ____ (study) early in the morning, because she wants ____ (finish) her homework before lunch. She doesn't mind ____ (wake up) early — in fact, she seems to enjoy ____ (be) productive in the morning.

Emma is quite healthy too. She avoids ____ (eat) junk food and practises ____ (cook) healthy meals every day. Her friends say she's really good at ____ (make) tasty smoothies.

In the afternoons, she often goes to the gym. At first, she couldn't stand ____ (exercise), but now she loves ____ (work out). She even offered ____ (help) her friends get in shape!

Despite her busy schedule, Emma doesn't forget ____ (call) her grandmother once a week. They both look forward to ____ (chat) together.

Sometimes, Emma and her friends plan ____ (travel) during the holidays. Last summer, they decided ____ (go) to Italy. Emma asked her parents ____ (lend) her some money and they agreed ____ (support) her.

At night, she misses ____ (have) more free time, but she hopes ____ (relax) after exams. She would like ____ (visit) Greece next summer.

She also prefers ____ (read) books rather than scrolling through social media. And when it comes to music, she can't stand ____ (listen) to loud pop songs — she'd much rather listen to jazz.

- What activities do you enjoy doing every day?
- What do you hope to do next summer?
- What's something you decided to learn recently?
