Decide if the sentence needs "A" or "An" to make it complete.

1. He is _____ intelligent boy.
2. She has _____ umbrella.
3. They study together at _____ university.
4. They have _____ tiger in the zoo.
5. I would love to see _____ eagle.
6. She wears _____ hat every day.
7. I have _____ hour until I have to go back to work.
8. This is _____ unintelligent cat.
9. We go on _____ vacation every year.
10. He picked _____ flower for his girlfriend.
11. A church is _____ holy place.
12. We would love to have _____ unicorn.
13. He has _____ upset stomach.
14. She is _____ honest person.
15. Will you please pass me _____ hanger for my shirt?

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Change the sentences from singular to plural OR from plural to singular.

1. I eat apples every day.

   _____.
2. This is an interesting book.

   _____.
3. She has amazing teachers.

   _____.
4. Your ideas sound interesting.

   _____.
5. My foot smells bad.

   _____.
6. This is my favorite shoe.

   _____.
7. She has honest friends.

   _____.
8. This box is open.

   _____.
9. She is an angry wife.

   _____.

LIVEWORKSHEETS