A. Find errors

1. The work is physically demand but the wage is high.
   A B C D
2. He was offered a well-pay job at a multinational corporation.
   A B C D
3. Filling out a long and detailed application letter is the first step to be employ by most
   A B C large corporations.
   D
4. A part-time work is suitable for students who are still in school.
   A B C D
5. Learning how to use the new software was a part of our on-the-job train.
   A B C D
6. The manager was impressed by his on-the-job perform, especially his ability to handle
   A B C stressful situations.
   D
7. Working as a freelance designer offers a lot of flexibilities; you can choose your projects
   A B C
   and work part-time.
   D
8. It's a challenge work that often requires us to work overtime, but the financial rewards
   A B C D
   are very worthy.
9. She felt that the repetitiveness of the task made the job bored and unrewarding, despite the high wage.
   A B C
   D

B. Fill in the blanks with suitable words/phrases given in the box (Some words are not used).

Ms. Minh Hà – 0982194748 – Minh Khai + Lạc Trung – Vĩnh Tuy – Hà Nội

LIVEWORKSHEETS

rewarding	stressful	vacancy	well-paid	bonus
nine-to-five	flexible	on-the-job	overtime	application letter
casual	challenging	unpaid	footsteps	employ

After graduating from university, Lan found herself facing the challenging job market. She didn't want any job; she wanted a career that was both (1) _____ and (2) _____. She saw a (3) _____ for a marketing assistant at a well-known company. The advertisement mentioned a (4) _____ salary and the potential for annual (5) _____, which was appealing. However, the job was a standard (6) _____ position, and Lan was hoping for something more (7) _____ that would allow her to travel.

After some consideration, she applied. The interview process was intense and somewhat (8) _____, but she performed well. To her delight, she was offered the job. While it wasn't her dream job, it was a foot in the door of a great company. She decided to take it, viewing it as a stepping stone and a chance to gain invaluable (9) _____ training. She knew that working hard and sometimes doing (10) _____ would help her advance in her career.

C. Based on the information from the above reading, answer the following questions.

1) What was Lan's main goal after university?
   A. To find any job quickly.
   B. To start her own business.
   C. To find a satisfying and stimulating career.
   D. To take a long break from working.
2) What aspect of the job was different from what Lan initially wanted?
   A. The salary.
   B. The fixed office hours.
   C. The location.
   D. The stress level.
3) How did Lan view the job she was offered?
   A. As her final career destination.
   B. As an opportunity to gain experience.
   C. As a very easy job.
   D. As a temporary, casual position.

LIVEWORKSHEETS