Americas film industry has surpassed even Japans epic monster movies with "Youd Better Hide." The movie features Canadas best actor, a womens softball team, and Georgias beautiful scenery. The giant, green, and hairy monster wipes out farms, towns, and forests, even though the governors orders try to stop it. Wholl save the people from this menace? Theyve kept the ending a closely guarded secret, but someone does turn out to be a hero. It's a parents decision whether or not to allow a child to see this film.
