

My name is _____ Date: Today is _____

Verbs followed by gerunds

1- Complete these sentences with the gerund or infinitive form of the verb in parentheses.

- 1. I practiced _____ (speak) English with an American friend last night.
- 2. He volunteered _____ (help) at the hospital fund-raiser.
- 3. They discussed _____ (go) somewhere exotic on their vacation this year.
- 4. She's stopped _____ (talk) to him because they had a big argument.
- 5. My great-grandmother has trouble _____ (get) to our family reunions.
- 6. Laura always denies _____ (be) wild and crazy, but she really is.
- 7. I don't mind _____ (help) my classmates when they don't understand.
- 8. I can't help _____ (laugh) when my friend tells a funny story.
- 9. I can't stand _____ (wait) in long lines.
- 10. I'm really into _____ (learn) new languages.
- 11. She feels like _____ (go) to the beach this weekend.
- 12. We're afraid of _____ (fail) the final exam.
- 13. My brother is tired of _____ (do) the same homework every day.

2- Choose the best answer to complete the sentences.

My friend Ana is pretty cool and very outgoing. She's usually busy _____ (to do / doing) a million things at once. Last week, I suggested _____ (to go / going) out for dinner and _____ (to see / seeing) a movie. We arranged _____ (to meet / meeting) at 7:00. Well, I know she doesn't worry about _____ (to be / being) on time, but she didn't show up until 7:30. At first, she said it took her a long time to finish _____ (to get / getting) ready. Then, after the movie, she couldn't resist _____ (to tell / telling) me what really happened. She was having such a good time _____ (to play / playing) video games with her brother that she forgot about our plans. It's a good thing I'm the laid-back type!

My name is _____ Date: Today is _____

Verbs followed by gerunds

1- Complete these sentences with the gerund or infinitive form of the verb in parentheses.

- 1. I practiced _____ (speak) English with an American friend last night.
- 2. He volunteered _____ (help) at the hospital fund-raiser.
- 3. They discussed _____ (go) somewhere exotic on their vacation this year.
- 4. She's stopped _____ (talk) to him because they had a big argument.
- 5. My great-grandmother has trouble _____ (get) to our family reunions.
- 6. Laura always denies _____ (be) wild and crazy, but she really is.
- 7. I don't mind _____ (help) my classmates when they don't understand.
- 8. I can't help _____ (laugh) when my friend tells a funny story.
- 9. I can't stand _____ (wait) in long lines.
- 10. I'm really into _____ (learn) new languages.
- 11. She feels like _____ (go) to the beach this weekend.
- 12. We're afraid of _____ (fail) the final exam.
- 13. My brother is tired of _____ (do) the same homework every day.

2- Choose the best answer to complete the sentences.

My friend Ana is pretty cool and very outgoing. She's usually busy _____ (to do / doing) a million things at once. Last week, I suggested _____ (to go / going) out for dinner and _____ (to see / seeing) a movie. We arranged _____ (to meet / meeting) at 7:00. Well, I know she doesn't worry about _____ (to be / being) on time, but she didn't show up until 7:30. At first, she said it took her a long time to finish _____ (to get / getting) ready. Then, after the movie, she couldn't resist _____ (to tell / telling) me what really happened. She was having such a good time _____ (to play / playing) video games with her brother that she forgot about our plans. It's a good thing I'm the laid-back type!