Emma's diary

Every day after school, Emma wrote in her diary. She sometimes drew little pictures in it, too. After lessons, Emma's friends always said, 'Come and play with us. We're going to the park.' 'No,' said Emma. 'I can't'. She went straight home, took out her diary and wrote about all her school friends. She always carried the diary in the pocket of her bag. Emma's best friend, Katy, asked, 'What do you write about?' 'It's a secret!' Emma answered.

One day, Emma saw her sister, Helen, with Katy in the street. She followed them and listened to them carefully. She could hear them, but they couldn't see her. They talked about lots of interesting things and, that evening, Emma wrote about them in her diary.

'I'm sorry, Katy,' said Emma, 'but please read the next page, too.'
