Profile: The DJ Maya Turner

Were you going to be a DJ?

No, I wasn't always going to be a DJ. When I was young, I was going to to be a classical musician and I wanted to play in an orchestra. I dreamed of writing and singing songs. I played the piano and I studied music at university. After university, I went travelling around Europe. I listened to lots of different styles of music. When I returned, I started mixing music on my brother's computer. I made a recording of one of my songs in a recording studio. I put it online and people loved it. Now I play at festivals and concerts around the world.

What are you known for?

My fans know me for my interesting clothes. I buy pieces from different second-hand shops where they have bargains and lower prices. This is the outfit that I'm going to wear during my performance at the weekend. I made it myself. I'm wearing a spotted blouse and a striped jacket. I'll wear lots of necklaces, too. Last month, I was playing at a concert on the sand dunes. The scenery was amazing. From the stage, I could see the sand dunes. The concert was in the evening. I thought I'd seen beautiful sunsets before, but that was spectacular!
