

BÀI TẬP VỀ IDIOMS

19. If something “rings a bell,” it means:
A. You remember something
B. You’re hungry
C. You feel confused
D. You’re happy

20. To “hit the sack” means:
A. Sleep
B. Work hard
C. Quit
D. Eat

21. “The ball is in your court” means:
A. You’re in control
B. You’ve lost the opportunity
C. You’re confused
D. You’re playing a game

22. To “drive someone up the wall” means:
A. Help them succeed
B. Annoy them
C. Scare them
D. Teach them

23. What does it mean to “have butterflies in your stomach”?
A. Feel excited
B. Feel nervous
C. Feel hungry
D. Feel angry

24. The idiom “in the same boat” means:
A. Facing the same situation
B. Traveling together
C. Moving in opposite directions
D. Sailing

25. To “pull someone’s leg” means:
A. Tease them
B. Help them
C. Hurt them
D. Confuse them

26. “Kill two birds with one stone” means:
A. Do two tasks at once
B. Cause harm
C. Save time
D. Overwork

27. What does “burn bridges” mean?
A. End relationships permanently
B. Make new friends
C. Build connections
D. Avoid conflict

28. To “put all your eggs in one basket” means:
A. Take a big risk
B. Save money
C. Spread out your chances
D. Be cautious

29. The idiom “hit the road” means:
A. Leave
B. Get angry
C. Start working
D. Get lost

30. What does “barking up the wrong tree” mean?
A. Doing something incorrectly
B. Making noise
C. Complaining
D. Criticizing

31. “A dime a dozen” means:
A. Very expensive
B. Common and cheap
C. Worthless
D. Unique

32. What does “raining cats and dogs” mean?
A. A thunderstorm
B. Heavy rain
C. Petting animals
D. Unusual weather

33. “Cry over spilled milk” means:
A. Get over a mistake
B. Regret something that cannot be changed
C. Cry for no reason
D. Clean up a mess

34. The idiom “take with a grain of salt” means:
A. Believe completely
B. Doubt or be skeptical
C. Disregard entirely
D. Add to your diet