

THE FAST & THE FURIOUS

Communication is quick and easy with digital technology. But is it making us lazy? Should some things be more personal?

Jin

'Instagram means I don't _____ anything.'

I'm really into Instagram. It's especially useful for birthdays, that kind of thing. When I check my Instagram feed, I can see who's celebrating, so I never forget. And I can just write a message on their post. And when people have big news – maybe a new baby or something – you can write a comment straight away.

Julie

'I'd prefer a phone call to a _____.'

I absolutely hate it when friends cancel by text. It's so rude. My friend Sara and I planned to go to the cinema tonight. But I'm pretty sure she'll cancel – she usually does. I'm waiting for her text now.

'Writing a blog is a lot easier than sending _____.'

I'm studying in New York, away from my family. And while I'm here, I'm writing a blog so my friends and family at home know my news. I particularly like to put all my photos on there because people leave comments. Most of my friends use social media, but I prefer writing a blog. It's fairly easy to do, and it's quicker than writing 50 separate emails.

Marc

Hi Sara,
Are we still on for the film tonight?

Hi Julie,
Not sure. I'll let you know soon.

Gabriel

I engage with my _____ on Instagram.'

I don't keep in touch with a lot of close friends, but I do have a lot of followers on Instagram. I post photos and videos every day. I'm an artist, so sometimes I include my new art and talk about where people can see my art in person. My followers comment on my posts, and sometimes they come to one of my art shows. It's great to meet them in person, but I'm shy, so I prefer to communicate through pictures!

Discussion

How do you communicate? Do you do these things with your friends and family? If not, what do you do instead?

- send birthday cards to friends
- write a blog
- send postcards from abroad
- write letters by hand
- make plans with friends by email
- cancel plans by text or direct message
- call friends to invite them somewhere

Read the introduction to the article and the line in 'quotation marks' under each photo. What do you think the missing words are? Add them to the article.

Read the article and answer the questions.

1. Why does Julie think her friend will cancel?

2. What does social media help Jin remember?
