

There may be an incorrectly spelt word in each line.

Select the incorrectly spelt word and write the correctly spelt word in the box.

If there is no error, put ' – '

Volcanoes

NO.	Sentence	Error	Correct Spelling
1	Volcanoes are natural openings in the Earth's crust that release melted rock, called magma, from deep beneath the surface.
2	When a volcano erupts, it throws out lava, ash, and gasses into the atmosphere.
3	Some eruptions are violent, while others are relatively calm.
4	The molten rock that reaches the surface and cools is known as lava, which can form new landmasses over time.
5	Volcanic eruptions can cause destructon but also create fertile soil for farming.
6	Scientists called volcanoligists study these eruptions to predict when they might occure again.
7	Around the world, many people live near volcanos because of the rich soil and natural beauty.

The Solar System

NO.	Sentence	Error	Correct Spelling
1	The Solar System consists of the Sun and all the planets that revolve around it.
2	Each planet moves in its own orbit due to the Sun's strong gravitaional pull.
3	Mercury is the closest planet, while Neptune is the furthest from the Sun.
4	Earth is the only planet known to support life becuase of its atmosphere and water.
5	Astroids and comets also travel through space and sometimes come close to Earth.
6	Jupiter is the largest planet, known for its massive storm called the Great Red Spot.

The Water Cycle
NO.	Sentence	Error	Correct Spelling
1	The water cycle shows how water moves around the Earth in a continuous process.
2	Water from oceans, lakes, and rivers evaporates when heated by the Sun.
3	The vapour rises into the atmosphere and cools to form clouds through condensation.
4	Climate change refers to long-term alterations in the Earth's temperature and weather.
5	It is caused mainly by human activities such as burning fossil fuels and deforestation.
6	Extreme weather events like droughts and floods have also become more common.
7	Governments and organisations are working together to reduce carbon emissions.
8	Everyone can help by using renewable energy and reducing wastage at home.

Social Media

NO.	Sentence	Error	Correct Spelling
1	Social media has become a powerful tool for communication in the modern world.
2	It allows users to connect instantly with friends and family across great distances.
3	However, spending too much time online can affect a person's productivity and focus.
4	Some people may also face cyberbullying or privacy issues while using these apps.
5	Therefore, it is important to use social media responsibly and set time limits.
6	When used wisely, social media can help spread awareness and inspire positive change.		