

EVERYDAY HEROES FROM HUARAZ

Name :

Class :

I. Vocabulary Practice: Match the words with their meanings:

●

●

She teaches children in rural schools.

●

●

She protects nature.

●

●

He helps people in emergencies.

●

●

He supports safety in the community.

I. READ THE TEXT:

EVERYDAY HEROES FROM HUARAZ

Maruja Huamán is an environmental leader from Huaraz. She teaches children to recycle and care for nature. She organizes clean-up campaigns in parks and rivers. Many people respect her because she protects the environment and inspires young people to love their city.

Carlos Mendoza is a volunteer firefighter. He helps people in emergencies and fights dangerous fires. He works during the night and on weekends to save lives. He is brave, dedicated, and never asks for anything in return. His community admires him because he puts others first.

Lucía Torres is a rural teacher in Cochabamba. She teaches children in small villages and walks long distances every day to reach her school. She motivates her students to read, study, and follow their dreams. She is kind, patient, and a strong example of perseverance.

II. COMPREHENSION QUESTIONS:

Choose the correct answer:

1. Maruja Huamán is...

- a) a police officer
- b) an environmental leader
- c) a nurse

2. Carlos Mendoza is admired because he...

- a) works only in the mornings
- b) helps people and saves lives
- c) sells products in markets

3. Lucía Torres works in...

- a) rural villages
- b) a city high school
- c) a private academy

Answer the questions:

4. What does Maruja teach children to do?

5. Why is Lucía an example for her students?

III. COMPLETE THE TABLE:

Person	Occupation	What he/she does (Simple Present)	Why he/she is important
Maruja Huamán	Environmental leader	She teaches children to recycle.	She protects nature in Huaraz.
Carlos Mendoza	Volunteer firefighter
Lucía Torres	Rural teacher

IV. WRITE ABOUT YOUR LOCAL HERO USING THE SIMPLE PRESENT TENSE:
