I can't believe there are only two weeks until the big day! I (A1) ... for this race for the last six months, but I still (A2) ... ready. If I had known it took so long to get fit, I would have started training far earlier! The injuries I've had haven't helped, though. Actually, last Monday, I had another setback. My friend Andy and I (A3) ... in the park when I tripped over a rock and twisted my ankle. It's not serious, but my doctor warned me not to make it worse, so I haven't run on it since then. Hopefully, it will have healed by next Tuesday when I train with the school athletics team. What else? Oh, I (A4) ... to register for the half-marathon instead of the full marathon. I considered doing the full marathon — but over the last few days I have been told by a lot of people that it's not suitable for teenagers. I just hope that I (A5) ... fit enough to finish the race! I (A6) ... more and more nervous every day — but I know it's OK if I walk some of the distance. Wish me luck everyone!
