

BÀI TẬP VỀ IDIOMS

1135. You'll need to work hard now, but don't forget to _____ when you can.
A. make hay while the sun shines B. feel under the weather
C. blow hot and cold D. throw caution to the wind
1136. He is always changing his mind, _____ about which career to pursue.
A. under the weather B. blowing hot and cold
C. on thin ice D. making hay while the sun shines
1137. When she was accused of cheating, she tried to _____ the issue.
A. steal someone's thunder B. weather the storm
C. throw caution to the wind D. cloud over
1138. He got upset when his colleague _____ by presenting the same idea first.
A. chased rainbows B. stole his thunder C. made hay D. got wind of it
1139. We'll need to _____ before making any big decisions about the merger.
A. weather the storm B. wait for a storm in a teacup
C. see which way the wind blows D. blow hot and cold
1140. I wouldn't trust him with such an important job. He's always _____.
A. under the weather B. a storm in a teacup
C. a fair-weather friend D. on cloud nine
1141. The scandal was merely _____ and was soon forgotten.
A. on cloud nine B. a storm in a teacup
C. raining on the parade D. chasing rainbows
1142. Whenever something good happens, she always _____ by being negative.
A. rains on my parade B. chases rainbows
C. sees which way the wind blows D. breaks the ice
1143. He seemed very confident, but the difficult questions soon _____.
A. threw caution to the wind B. took the wind out of his sails
C. blew hot and cold D. weathered the storm
1144. The election results left the entire party _____.
A. blowing hot and cold B. stealing thunder
C. under a cloud D. chasing rainbows
1145. The new policy was supposed to help, but it only made things worse by _____.
A. stealing thunder B. throwing caution to the wind
C. adding fuel to the fire D. breaking the ice
1146. You shouldn't make decisions when you're angry. Don't _____.
A. add fuel to the fire B. throw caution to the wind
C. chase rainbows D. fly off the handle
1147. After weeks of indecision, they finally _____ and bought the house.
A. blew hot and cold B. took the wind out of someone's sails
C. weathered the storm D. took the plunge