A DAY IN MY CITY!

Reading Comprehension Worksheet

1- Read the text below;

My name is Arif, and I live in Johor Bahru, a busy city in the south of Malaysia. Every morning, I wake up early and go to school by bus. On the way, I can see many tall buildings, cars, and people walking to work. Near my school, there is a beautiful park with big trees and colourful flowers. After class, my friends and I like to play football there before going home.

On weekends, my family and I usually go to the shopping mall. We eat lunch at the food court, and my favourite food is fried noodles. Sometimes, we watch movies or buy new clothes together. At night, I can see bright lights and hear the sound of cars and music from the city. I love my city because it is full of life and energy, and there are always fun things to do.
