

TRAVEL & HOLIDAYS

DESCRIBE A HOLIDAY YOU HAVE HAD THAT WAS SUCCESSFUL.

YOU SHOULD SAY:

- ⊗ When the holiday took place
- ⊗ Who you went with
- ⊗ Why it was successful

family bonds

perfect example

much-needed break

recharge and reconnect

perfect combination

summer getaway

One of the most memorable experiences of my life was a (1) _____ to a big city on the coast of the Central Vietnam last July.

It was a family trip involving my parents and two close cousins, and we had been planning it for months. What made it particularly enjoyable was the (2) _____ of good weather, breathtaking scenery, and quality time together.

We spent five days exploring the city's beaches, visiting famous landmarks like the Marble Mountains, and trying the local cuisine. It was also a (3) _____ from the pressures of work and study, which helped us all (4) _____.

Looking back, I would say it was a (5) _____ of a well-organized and fulfilling holiday, one that strengthened (6) _____ and left us with lasting memories.

look back on

looking forward to perfect blend

turned out

unexpected problems

unwind and reconnect

I'd like to talk about a wonderful summer getaway to Da Nang last July, which (7) _____ to be one of the most memorable experiences of my life.

It was a family trip involving my parents and two close cousins, and we'd been (8) _____ it for months. After a stressful exam season, it was exactly the kind of much-needed break that allowed all of us to (9) _____.

The trip itself was incredible. We spent five days exploring the beaches, visiting the Marble Mountains, and enjoying local seafood. Every day brought a (10) _____ of relaxation and adventure — swimming in the crystal-clear water in the morning and trying street food in the evening.

What made the holiday truly successful was the combination of good company, great weather, and smooth planning. There were no (11) _____, and everything went just as we'd hoped.

Looking back, I'd say it was a perfect example of a well-organized and fulfilling holiday, one that not only strengthened our family bond but also gave us unforgettable memories to (12) _____.

amazing	delicious	memorable	nerve-racking
recharged	relaxed	successful	well-organized

I'd like to talk about a really (13) summer trip to Da Nang last July. It was a family outing with my parents and two cousins, and honestly, it turned out to be one of the best trips I've ever had.

We'd been planning it for quite a while, and after a (14) exam period, it felt like exactly the kind of break we all needed. The moment we arrived, we were greeted by (15) weather and a (16) coastal vibe, which immediately lifted everyone's mood.

During the five days there, we spent most of our time at the beach, visiting the Marble Mountains, and trying all sorts of (17) local food. I still remember the evenings when we just sat by the shore, watching the sunset — it was such a peaceful and refreshing experience.

What made the holiday (18), I think, was the combination of good company, smooth planning, and just enough adventure to keep things exciting. Everything went perfectly, and there were no stressful moments at all.

So overall, it was a perfect example of a fun, (19) family trip — the kind that leaves you feeling (20) and full of happy memories.

breathtaking views	cozy beachfront	for the eyes	full of deadlines
hustle and bustle	positive energy	rejuvenating retreat
truly unforgettable	vibrant colours	well-planned

I'd like to talk about a (21) summer getaway to Phu Quoc Island, which turned out to be a perfect example of a (22) and rewarding holiday.

It was a family trip involving my parents and my younger brother, and we had been looking forward to it for months. After a busy semester (23), it felt like a much-needed escape from the (24) of city life.

We stayed in a (25) resort with (26) of the sea. Every day was a delightful combination of adventure and relaxation — we went snorkeling, explored local markets, and spent our evenings enjoying fresh seafood by the water. One of the highlights was watching a spectacular sunset that painted the sky with (27) — it was truly a feast (28).

What made it such a success was the flawless organization and the (29) we all shared. There were no stressful moments, just a sense of peace and togetherness throughout the trip. Looking back, I'd say it was a (30) that strengthened our family bond and left us with lasting memories.