

Model analysis

1 Read the rubric, then the model.

Your teacher has asked you to write a description (140-190 words) about a place you visited on holiday last year. Describe the place and say what you saw and did there.

Which paragraph mentions: CHECK

- ☐ A the writer's comments about the place?
- ☐ B what the writer saw and did there?
- ☐ C the name of the place and the reason for going there?
- ☐ D what the place was like?

A Perfect City Break

1 Last October my best friend and I booked a short break in the famous city of Edinburgh on Scotland's east coast. We stayed at a small hotel near the city centre. When we arrived, a cold wind was blowing and there was a thick mist, but that just made the atmosphere more exciting and mysterious!

2 Edinburgh is an amazing city. Apart from the modern areas, it is full of beautiful historic buildings and narrow cobbled streets which add to its magic.

3 We didn't have time to see and do everything. We visited Edinburgh Castle and saw the Scottish Crown Jewels. Then, we explored Mary King's Close with its creepy hidden underground streets and houses. The city's poor lived there in the 17th century. There were also several traditional restaurants where they served the Scottish speciality, haggis. It looked weird but was surprisingly tasty.

4 We enjoyed every minute of our visit. Edinburgh is so fascinating that I definitely plan to go back one day.

2 Replace the adjectives in bold in the model using adjectives from the list. CHECK

- attractive
- well-known
- thrilling
- chilly
- scary
- interesting
- delicious
- strange
