Harmony Elephant Sanctuary Experience

Have you ever tried bathing elephants or even getting in the mud with them? Have you heard of the Harmony Elephant Sanctuary in Phuket, Thailand? If you haven't, now is the chance to experience an unforgettable elephant adventure organised by Anuki Nature's Club. This sanctuary truly offers an immersive experience, allowing you to connect with these majestic creatures in a safe and ethical environment.

There are two package options available. The Member's Package is for RM2,000 and the Non-Member's Package is for RM2,600. Both packages include round-trip flights, transportation, an English-speaking tour guide, three delicious meals per day, three nights of comfortable accommodation, drinking water and even food to feed the elephants. Remember, this is more than just a trip, it is an immersive experience! There will be professional photographers to capture three special moments with you and the elephants.

The sanctuary offers a diverse range of activities designed to educate and engage visitors. You will have the opportunity to meet the elephants, learn about their unique personalities and behaviours and even participate in preparing and feeding them. You will get to enjoy playful interactions, bathe the elephants and even indulge in a rejuvenating mud spa with them.

Beyond connecting with the elephants, the sanctuary offers other opportunities to explore the natural beauty of Phuket. Come and hike through lush landscapes, join the locals in planting and harvesting activities and savour delicious Thai dishes and seasonal fruits.

So, don't just sit there. Book your unforgettable experience today. Visit Anuki Nature's Club website at www.natureclubz.com or email at info@naturesclub.com for more information. Be part of the Anuki's Nature Club and create lasting memories while supporting the well-being of these gentle giants at the Harmony Elephant Sanctuary. Get those fingers busy, quick!
