

WRITING 1 – UNIT 4 – VERSION 1Topic:

Write about an important event in your life.

Guiding questions:

How old were you?

What happened?

Why is this event important to you?

Requirements:

- Length: a paragraph of at least 120 words.
- Structure: a topic sentence, a body (the story), and a concluding sentence, but it can be written as one continuous narrative paragraph.
- Use at least three linking devices (e.g., first, then, however, finally, in addition, etc.).
- Use at least two compound sentences (e.g., sentences joined by and, but, so, or).
- Use at least two complex sentences (e.g., sentences with because, when, although, if, since, etc.).
- Try to expand your ideas by explaining your feelings, opinions, and reasons — not just stating what happened.

My paragraph: