

Vocabulary Test - 1

- When people meet for the first time, a friendly smile or a polite hand movement can be a powerful _____ of communication.
A. myth B. gesture C. means D. quip
- Many cultures have old _____ that try to explain natural events, such as storms or earthquakes, through stories about gods and heroes.
A. distinctions B. gestures C. myths D. classifications
- Language is one of the most important _____ through which humans express their thoughts and emotions.
A. means B. myths C. complexities D. stems
- Some people mistakenly believe that local dialects are _____ to standard languages, even though both serve the same purpose in communication.
A. inferior B. systematic C. comparative D. implied
- The use of images and videos in class can _____ students' understanding of difficult topics.
A. evolve B. imply C. facilitate D. blur
- Researchers often conduct _____ studies to find out how two methods or groups differ from each other.
A. systematic B. comparative C. complex D. implied
- Good scientists collect data in a _____ way, following clear steps so that others can repeat their experiments.
A. systematic B. mythic C. cognitive D. inferior
- The process of thinking, learning, and remembering is known as human _____.
A. classification B. cognition C. evolution D. implication
- There is a clear _____ between casual spoken English and formal academic English, both in vocabulary and structure.
A. complexity B. means C. distinction D. myth
- Over time, human languages continue to _____ as societies change and new technologies appear.
A. imply B. evolve C. blur D. stem
- During the serious discussion, he made a quick _____ that made everyone laugh and lightened the mood.
A. classification B. quip C. cognition D. distinction

12. The heavy fog began to _____ the outlines of the buildings, making it difficult to see clearly.

- A. imply
- B. blur
- C. evolve
- D. classify

13. The speaker didn't say it directly but seemed to _____ that the company might be facing financial problems.

- A. infer
- B. facilitate
- C. imply
- D. stem

14. The _____ of human communication makes it challenging for scientists to fully understand how language works.

- A. complexity
- B. gesture
- C. classification
- D. means

15. Biologists use a detailed system of _____ to group living things according to their characteristics.

- A. cognition
- B. comparison
- C. classification
- D. myth

16. Many cultural traditions and language habits _____ the long history of a community's development.

- A. stem from
- B. facilitate
- C. imply
- D. blur