

HOW ARE YOU TODAY?

WARM UP - BRAINSTORM

In groups, think about the reasons why people travel to different cities or countries. Make a brainstrom of as many ideas as you can in 3 minutes

ACTIVITY 1: READING

Read the text & find out why most people travel.

Why do we travel?

A course in a different city? Mom's birthday? Family vacations?

Leisure travel:

It covers activities we do in our free time and produce pleasure. Health tourism, sports tourism, educational travel cultural travel among others, are all included in this category.

VFR:

(Visiting friends and relatives): VFR is not often dependent on tourism services like transport or accommodation, although there may be elements of leisure, the main purpose is social.

Business travel:

It covers exhibitions and fairs, conferences, business meetings, etc. People traveling on business need to relax as well, but their main purpose of their trip is work, not pleasure.

ACTIVITY 2: DISCUSSION

Discuss in groups:

- 1.What is, in your experience, the most common reason to travel in Chile?
- 2.What do you think are the challenges that the Chilean industry faces for each category of travel?

ACTIVITY 3: VIDEO COMPREHENSION

1. What did the speaker learn about the importance of space while traveling full-time?
2. How does the "mountain test" influence the speaker's purchasing decisions?
3. According to the speaker, what is the relationship between happiness and material possessions?

WHAT TRAVEL TEACHES YOU

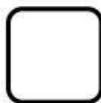

WEEK 19

ACTIVITY 4: TRUE OR FALSE

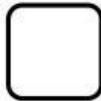

1. True or False: The speaker lived out of a small backpack for three years.
2. True or False: The "mountain test" refers to the idea of only keeping items that are worth carrying up a mountain.
3. True or False: The speaker believes that clutter does not affect one's happiness.
4. True or False: Traveling full-time taught the speaker to be more mindful of their purchases.
5. True or False: The speaker plans to fill their home with as many gadgets as possible.
6. True or False: At the end of the day, happiness comes from objects according to the speaker.
7. True or False: The speaker emphasizes that a big house should be filled with people and not objects.

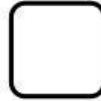

Class End

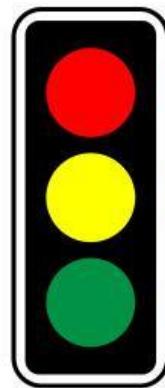

- To talk about the traveling purposes of some tourists.

- To discuss the purposes and challenges of Chilean tourists.

- To watch a video about what traveling could teach you.

I achieved 1 objective

I achieved 2 objectives

I achieved every objective