

ID	Problem (The Challenge)
1.	My brother refuses to clean his room.
2.	My teenage daughter and I often argue about her curfew.
3.	We don't have enough money for a family holiday this year.
4.	My parents are worried about my grandfather's health.
5.	The children spend too much time playing video games.
6.	My husband never remembers our wedding anniversary.
7.	We feel disconnected because everyone is busy with their own schedule.
8.	My little sister keeps taking my favourite clothes without asking.
9.	My mother wants me to study law, but I prefer art.
10.	We need to save money to buy a bigger house next year.

ID	Solution (The Advice)
A.	You should discuss your future career with her calmly.
B.	They are going to book him an appointment with a specialist doctor.
C.	We will put aside 10% of our salaries every month starting now.
D.	I am going to buy a lock for my wardrobe to protect them.
E.	You ought to write a reminder in his phone calendar immediately.
F.	We will introduce a "no screen time" rule after dinner every day.
G.	You should try to compromise and agree on a later weekend time.
H.	I will make a weekly chore chart and stick it on the fridge.
I.	We are going to start a savings fund just for holidays.
J.	We must schedule one evening a week for family time only.