

Festive India

India is a land of festivals and fairs. Celebration of festivals reminds our heritage and keeps our rich traditions and culture alive. Festivals bring joy and happiness in life. Some festivals are celebrated by all and throughout the country. While there are many others which are limited to a particular community and region.

Some of these festivals are given below. Fill in the given blanks with the help of Help box.

1. 'Onam' is celebrated in which state? _____
2. 'Bihu' festival is held in _____
3. This festival is celebrated in south India specially in Tamil Nadu, Karnataka and Andhra : _____
4. 'Durga Pooja' is an important festival of which state?

5. 'Ganesh Chaturthee' is celebrated with great pomp and show in the state of _____.
6. Baisakhi is celebrated in _____ state.
7. 'Chhat Pooja' is important religious festival of _____.
8. 'Ugadi' is the festival of _____ state.
9. Hindu-devotes of Lord Shiva keep fast and offer 'Ganga Jal' to Lord Shiva on _____.
10. A big fair is held every 12 years. People take holy dip in the rivers at Allahabad, Haridwar, Ujjain and Nasik. Name the river and the fair. _____

HELP BOX

Kerala, Assam, West Bengal, Pongal, Maharashtra, Punjab, Bihar, Andhra Pradesh, Shivratri, Kumbh