Household Chores

Choose the correct option to complete the sentences

You have / don't have to lay / clear the table now. Dinner is ready!

Dad has / doesn't have to clean / wash the floor because the dog's paws were muddy.

The living room is a mess. Mum has / doesn't have to clear / tidy up.

Jack has / doesn't have to make out / take out the rubbish. The bin in the office is full.

Mum doesn't have / has to make lunch / cook tonight – we've ordered pizza.

My sister doesn't have / has to walk / feed the dog. I took him earlier.

You have / don't have to feed / sweep the cat. Your sister forgot to do that!

When it's cold, Dad has / doesn't have to mow / cut more wood.

Mary has / doesn't have to do the washing-up / do the washing because her husband always does it.

He has / doesn't have to do the gardening / mow the lawn because the grass is long.

He has / doesn't have to sweep / shovel the driveway whenever it snows.

I have / don't have to do the ironing / do the washing when the clothes are dry.

He has / doesn't have to load / unload the washing machine – the cycle's done.

The window panes are really dirty. You have / don't have to clean / clear them.

She has /doesn't have to tidy / put away her clothes. They are all scattered around!

I have / don't have to lay / clear the table after dinner – it's my sister's turn.

She's a janitor, so she has / doesn't have to clean / clear a lot.

When I'm late for school, Mum has / doesn't have to do/ to make my bed.

I have / don't have to wash / sweep my dad's car because he prefers doing that himself.

My brother has / doesn't have to make / do the washing / on Tuesdays – it's his day on the rota.

I have / don't have to load / unload the dishwasher – all the dishes are still in the sink.

Grandma doesn't have / has to wash / sweep the floor because she hasn't got a robot cleaner.

He has /doesn't have to water / wash the plants in the office because it's the cleaning lady's job.

Mum has / doesn't have to do the shopping / go shopping today – the fridge is empty.

LIVEWORKSHEETS