Future tenses
Will vs Going to

- Complete the text with will or going to.

Next weekend, I _____ (visit) my grandparents. They live near a lake, and I _____ (spend) most of my time fishing. My sister _____ (come) with me. We haven't decided what to do for dinner yet. I think we _____ (order) pizza if nobody wants to cook. I just realized I forgot my fishing rod! I _____ (buy) a new one on my way there. The weather forecast says it _____ (rain), so I hope it _____ (not/ruin) our plans. My grandmother _____ (cook) her famous pie, and I know it _____ (be) delicious!

- What would you say? Complete with will or going to

1 A. It's really hot in here!
B. You're right, I _____(open) the window
2 A. I bought some new shoes.
B. Oh, so you _____ (wear) them to the party?
3 A. I forgot my notebook at home.
B. Don't worry, I _____ (lend) you mine.
4 A. The floor is wet!
B. Be careful or you _____ (slip).
5 A. You're late again
B. If it happens one more time, I _____ (report) you to the teacher
6 A. What are you going to do this weekend?
B. I _____ (probably/go) to a sports game
7 A. Did you give Clara her present?
B. No. I _____ (give) it to her tomorrow when she arrives from work.

LIVEWORKSHEETS