Grammar Worksheet: Likes and Dislikes

Objective: Use like / love / hate / prefer + verb-ing correctly to talk about university life and free time.

Part 1 – Complete the sentences

Use like, love, hate, prefer and the -ing form of the verbs in parentheses.

1. I [[studying]] at the library after class.
2. She [[drinking]] coffee before morning lectures.
3. We [[hanging out]] with friends on weekends.
4. They [[doing]] group projects.
5. My roommate [[cooking]] at home instead of eating out.
6. I [[listening]] to music while I'm studying.
7. He [[going]] to the gym after university.
8. We [[watching]] Netflix in the evening.

Part 2 – Correct the mistakes

Rewrite the sentences correctly.

1. I like go to the gym. → [[I like going to the gym.]]
2. She love listening music. → [[She loves listening to music.]]
3. We prefers watch movies. → [[We prefer watching movies.]]
4. They hate do homework late at night. → [[They hate doing homework late at night.]]
5. He don't like study English. → [[He doesn't like studying English.]]

Part 3 – Write your own sentences

Write 4 sentences about yourself using like / love / hate / prefer + verb-ing.

Example: I love listening to music while I'm studying.

1. [[text]]
2. [[text]]
3. [[text]]
4. [[text]]

Part 4 – Challenge: Compare with a classmate

Ask a partner and complete:

We both like [[text]].

We both hate [[text]].

My partner prefers [[text]], but I prefer [[text]].

I love [[text]], but my partner doesn't.
