Did life use to be better?

A Older people often say that, in the past, life used to be better. However, in my opinion, this is simply not true.

B <sup>1</sup> Firstly _____, let's look at the situation of women. In the old days, many men (and some women) used to think that a woman's role in life was to be a mother and to do the housework and the cooking. Fortunately, attitudes have changed a lot since then! <sup>2</sup> _____ women today are in a much more favourable position.

C <sup>3</sup> _____, the number of very poor people around the world has decreased significantly in the last 20 or 30 years. <sup>4</sup> _____, many children in poor countries would die when they were still very young. This happens far less often now. <sup>5</sup> _____ we can talk about huge change in two very important areas.

D <sup>6</sup> _____, the world today is a much better place. If we examine the facts, no one would want to go back to a 'golden past'. This past only exists in some people's imagination. It never existed in reality.
