UNIT 10: REACHING FOR THE SKIES

IELTS Speaking Part 1: Space Travel (3–4 minutes): Focus: personal opinions & everyday ideas

1. Would you like to travel into space one day?

boundaries	humbling	lifetime	perspective

Absolutely! The idea of seeing our planet from above is both thrilling and (1) _____. It would be a once-in-a-(2)_____ adventure that pushes human (3) _____ and gives a completely new (4) _____ on life on Earth.

fascinated by	out of this world	ultimate adventure	witness

Without a doubt! I've always been (5) _____ what lies beyond our planet. Travelling into space would be the (6)_____— a chance to (7) _____ Earth from a completely different angle and experience something truly (8) _____.

broaden my horizons	mind-blowing	venturing	zero gravity

Absolutely, yes. I've always dreamed of (9) _____ beyond our planet. The idea of floating in (10) _____ and gazing down at the Earth from orbit would be (11) _____. It would definitely (12) _____ — both literally and figuratively!

2. Do you think space travel will be common in the future?

advancements	decades	progress	tourism

Definitely. With rapid technological (13) _____ and private companies like SpaceX making (14) _____, I believe space (15) _____ will become more affordable and accessible in a few (16) _____.

advance	inevitably drop	intensifies	long-haul	not-too-distant

I believe so. As technology continues to (17) _____ and competition among private space companies (18)_____, the cost will (19) _____. In the (20) _____ future, space travel might be as common as flying on (21) _____ flights today.

book a ticket	into innovation	matter of time	science fiction

I think it's only a (22) _____. With private companies pouring billions (23) _____, space tourism is no longer just (24) _____. In a few decades, people might be able to (25) _____ to space as easily as they book a flight abroad now.

3. Why do you think people are so fascinated by space?

captivate	grand scheme	limitless	reminds

I think it's the mystery and the unknown that (26) _____ us. Space represents (27) _____ possibilities and (28) _____ us how small we are in the (29) _____ of things.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

mysterious	naturally drawn	question mark	represented	sparks

Space has always (30) _____ the unknown — something vast and (31) _____ that (32) _____ our curiosity. People are (33) _____ to explore what they don't understand, and the universe is the biggest (34)_____ of all.

fragile	grand scheme	mystery	next frontier	push boundaries

I suppose it's because space represents the ultimate (35) _____. It reminds us how small and (36)_____ we are in the (37) _____ of things. Humans have always had an instinct to explore and (38) _____ , and space is the (39) _____ waiting to be conquered.

4. Would you prefer to go to the Moon or to Mars?

feels like	incredibly exciting	setting foot	ultimate adventure

Probably Mars, because it (40) _____ the next frontier. The idea of (41) _____ on another planet sounds (42) _____ — it's the (43) _____.

breathtaking sight	lunar horizon	safer for beginners

I'd choose the Moon first. It's closer and probably (44) _____ like me! I'd love to see the Earth rising over the (45) _____— that must be a (46) _____. Maybe after that, I'd be brave enough to consider Mars.

human colony	straight out of	true leap

I'd go for Mars, hands down. It's such an ambitious goal — a (47) _____ for humankind. The idea of setting foot on a completely different planet and perhaps helping to build the first (48) _____ sounds like something (49) _____ a sci-fi film.

LIVEWORKSHEETS