Name: _____ Date: _____

Reading Check up

Read the following paragraph

Helen Keller was a girl who could not see or hear. Her teacher, Anne Sullivan, helped her learn to read and write. Helen worked hard and never gave up. She showed great knowledge and good behavior. Her story teaches us to be brave and curious.

Choose the best answer for each question. Mark the letter with and "x".

1. What problem did Helen have?

   a) She could not walk.

   b) She could not see or hear.

   c) She could not read books.

2. Who helped Helen learn?

   a) Her sister

   b) Her mother

   c) Her teacher, Anne Sullivan

3. What kind of person was Helen?

   a) Lazy

   b) Brave and curious

   c) Mean

4. What does the story teach us?

   a) To give up when things are hard.

   b) To keep trying and be brave.

   c) To stay silent and not learn.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

5. What is the author's purpose?

a) To make us laugh

b) To inform and inspire readers

c) To tell a fairy tale

Choose one of the following words. Write one sentence using a vocabulary. Capitalization, punctuation, correct spelling and grammar structure count.

knowledge, curious, motion, silence, illness, imitated, darkness, behavior

1.

Read each sentence and choose the correct word from the three options. Then, write the word on the lines provided.

1. When you are sick, you have an _____.

a) illness b) motion c) silence

2. When there is no light, there is _____.

a) knowledge b) darkness c) behavior

3. The baby _____ her mother by clapping her hands too.

a) curious b) imitated c) illness

4. I was _____ about what was inside the box.

a) motion b) curious c) darkness

LIVEWORKSHEETS

5. The teacher was proud of our good _____ in class.

a) behavior b) silence c) illness

6. Please keep _____ in the library.

a) knowledge b) silence c) motion

7. The car was in _____ as it rolled down the hill.

a) motion b) behavior c) curious

8. We get _____by reading books and learning.

a) darkness b) knowledge c) imitated

LIVEWORKSHEETS