

*Complete the sentences below with words or phrases from the recording.

1. How is the girl going to help her dad?

What's for dinner, Dad?

Vegetable soup. And there's some really nice bread and cheese I bought at the market.

Nice. Can I _____? I'll _____ the vegetables up if you want.

I've already asked your brother to do that. He's just finishing his homework before he comes down. I guess _____ doing _____, though.

He could _____ instead. That's fairly quick and easy, and I'm sure he won't mind.

True. Or there's always the _____ to do afterwards. He can choose which.

2. Which place would the boy most like to visit?

Did you see nature around the world on TV last night?

I did. Last week's program on _____ was amazing enough, but seeing _____ in that much detail was even _____. I'm sure they're very difficult places to spend time in, though. I'm not sure I'd want to meet some of the _____ they showed.

No, but then the same would be true in most of the places they've filmed.

It would. Although I like all the _____ they filmed in the _____ and the _____ there would be _____ to experience.

I suppose so.

3. What's the girl learning to do?

How are the badminton lessons going?

I _____ a couple of weeks ago. Actually, I wasn't _____, so I changed to something that _____ better.

Let me guess. Something to do with it.

You know me so well. I thought about trying something _____ like _____ because mine's always _____. My dad doesn't mind _____ it when it does, though, so I went for _____ instead.

I think I'd prefer to learn a new _____, but hey, we're all different.

4. What did the boy forget to buy?

Did you get everything?

I think so. I got two _____ like you asked. One with _____ and one with _____.

I said we'd already got those. Don't you remember? Anyway, it doesn't matter. I can put these ones in the freezer.

The salad was _____ today, so I got _____ that. And you said we had _____ ice cream, so that's everything.

I said I didn't think we had any _____. Perhaps you got that _____ with what I said about the pizzas.

Oh, maybe.

Never mind.

5. Where did the girl leave her glasses?

Hi. I think I left my glasses at your house. I only use them for reading, so I didn't notice I'd forgotten them till now. I was using them in your _____ when we were looking at that _____ together on your _____ on your desk. I remember _____ though when we were _____ in your _____. So, it's _____ checking on the sofa. I remember I left them on the table by your _____ once, but I'm pretty sure I _____ that again.

6. Why was the boy late for school?

You're late, Kevin. Was the traffic bad?

No _____ than usual, miss. I set my alarm clock for 7:30, which gives me enough time to have some breakfast and get to school. But this morning, I couldn't find my history essay, which I've got to _____ today. It took 10 minutes to remember where I'd left it. Then I had to run for the bus, but it _____ just before I got there. Anyway, I had to _____, and my mom _____ here.

7. What does Lisa's dad want her to do?

Hi, Lisa. It's Dad. Both your mom and I are going to be _____ home tonight, so there's something I'd like you to do. Your _____'s got some _____ he needs to do for school tomorrow. But we should be _____ to do that with him. He'll need something to _____, though. There's plenty of bread, cheese, and tomatoes. He's got enough _____ for school tomorrow, so there's no need to worry about doing any washing. Okay. See you at about 7.