

Unit 4 – Lesson 5

A: Adult J: Joshua

A: Welcome back to Real Radio! Today we're talking with Joshua about online. He has his own very popular channel and he knows how to make great videos. Hello, Joshua!

J: Hi!

A: A lot of people social media every day and there are millions of videos out there. What of videos do you make and how do you make them fun?

J: I create “how-to” videos that people how to do things. Mine are about animations.

A: That's interesting.

J: Yes, and I like to different people. I often go to see what people are working on and learn from them. The last video I was about how the music was for my last animation.

A: Who was the animation by?

Unit 4 – Lesson 5

J: Well, I love drawing, so I the pictures and I the animation myself. The music by a composer—a friend of my dad's named Jane. It was awesome. It really made my pictures come alive!

A: Cool! And what can you give to our listeners today?

J: It's important to all the people you work with so everyone knows whose work it is.

A: What else?

J: If you want to make sure your video by as many people as possible, you can people to tell them about a new post. But you always ask for their permission first.

A: Yes, that's very important. So, are your videos seen a lot of people?

J: Yes, they are. People even write comments under the videos. I hearing what people think!

A: Thanks very much, Joshua ...
