

FUTURES

Pick the correct future form (or forms) for each of these sentences.

1. Look at that man with the mask on. Do you think he is going to rob / is robbing / will rob / robs a bank?
2. I am going call / will call / am calling / might call you if I hear any news about Carl.
3. Everything's decided. First, we have / are going to have / are haveing / will have dinner at the Italian restaurant. Then, we drive / will drive / might driving / are going to drive to Margate to meet Bob and Karen, and we will all go / are all going to / are all going / all go bowling.
4. Do you think I will ever win / am ever going to win / am ever winning / ever win the lottery?
5. "Why are you all dressed up, Maggy?" "Because I might go / will go / am going to go / go to the opera." "Oh. You will see / might see / are seeing / see Sally there. She goes / will go / is going / might be going with her friends from work."
6. "Mum, I've got a headache"; Oh dear, don't worry "I am going / will get / am getting / get / might get an aspirin for you."
7. "Why are you carrying those ladders, Rob?" "I might climb / will climb / am going to climb / climb that tree. And then, I cut / am going to cut / will cut / am cutting off that old branch because it's dangerous. It is falling / will fall / is going to fall / might fall off and hurt someone walking below."
8. "In about fifty years from now, people will travel / are travelling / are going to travel / travel by flying car" "No, they won't / aren't / aren't going to / don't. That kind of technology probably is going to be / probably won't be / probably isn't / probably isn't being available for at least another hundred years."

9. We go / We are going / We will go / We are going to go / Let's go and get a birthday card for Wendy.
It will be / is going to be / might be her birthday next week.
10. Might you catch / Will catch you / Are you going to catch / Do you catch the train to work this morning?" No. I think it will rain / is going to rain / rains / is raining, so I will probably drive / am probably going to drive / probably drive / am probably driving there.
11. "Might you throw / Will throw you / Are you going to throw / Do you throw away that jacket?" "Yes. Look at it! The lining is all torn" "Don't throw it away. I will mend / am mending / mend / am going to the lining and then I am taking / might take / am going to take it to that charity shop in Newark."