2

BUILDERS OF MODERN INDIA

A country is not made prosperous only by its ideology or vision, but by people who make these ideologies and visions a reality. It is these silent workers who are actually the true architects and builders of a nation.

Name the people shown below, who helped India realise its dreams of becoming a modern country. You can use the Help Line.

1. The heir to an enormous industrial legacy, he was the man whose vision and efforts put India on the air map and resulted in the formation of Air India Airlines. _____
2. Starting his career as a school teacher, this man was the founder of one of the biggest industrial enterprises of India. _____
3. This Magsaysay Award winner was the 'Father of the White Revolution'. His Operation Flood and Amul changed the lives of cattle farmers forever. _____
4. A winner of the Jnanpith Award in 1996, this writer was also the recipient of the Magsaysay Award 1997 for community leadership. _____
5. It was the vision of this great scientist that led to India starting a nuclear programme. _____
6. Debuting at 16, he went on to become one of the greatest cricketers of all time. He changed the way India looked at sports. _____
7. When she qualified for the final at the Olympic 400-m women's race, this woman inspired a generation of Indians to take up sports seriously. _____
8. Known as the angry young man, this legendary actor has won the title of 'The Star of the Milennium' and has changed the way the Indian film industry worked. _____

1.
2.
3.
4.
5.
6.
7.
8.

HELP LINE

Dr. Verghese kurien, Homi J Bhabha, JRD Tata, Mahasweta Devi, PT Usha, Sachin Tendulkar, Amitabh Bachchan, Dhiru bhai Ambani

LIVEWORKSHEETS