LISTENING 1.1. Select the correct option.

Nicolás: Hey Daniela, how did you like our visit to the Museum of Meatpacking Industry Workers in Cerro?

Daniela: I really liked it. I didn't know much about the workers' history of the industry. Their _____ were really tough.

Nicolás: Yes, especially the part about _____. Many workers didn't have any _____, and salaries were really low.

Daniela: The museum explained how they formed a _____ to defend themselves. I found the newspapers very interesting, especially the one called "Lucha".

Nicolás: Same here! It showed how workers organized _____ and even a _____. They wanted to _____.

Daniela: Their _____ must have been really hard. They weren't only fighting for money, they wanted _____ and _____.

Nicolás: I didn't know that the bridge near the museum was important because workers used it to get to the frigorífico.

Daniela: Me neither! And I liked the section about Artigas, and how his ideas encouraged participation and equality.

Nicolás: The guide said Artigas believed that everyone should have a voice, and that connects with the workers' participation in social movements.

Daniela: After visiting, I understand why unions are still important today — the fight for respect and dignity continues.
