In my home country I had a good <sup>1</sup> as a tour guide, but then I moved to Sydney and everything changed. I tried to find the same kind of job, but I didn't speak English well and no one <sup>2</sup> me a job. Finally, I took a job as a cleaner. The <sup>3</sup> wasn't very good, but it was something. The work was hard and the kitchens were the worst. People didn't do the washing <sup>4</sup> or <sup>5</sup> anything away, and there was often old food everywhere (the smell was terrible). I didn't like working alone and felt lonely and <sup>6</sup>. I studied English in my free time and when I was more <sup>7</sup>, I <sup>8</sup> another interview for a job in the tourist <sup>9</sup>. That was five years ago. Now it's my <sup>10</sup> to train new guides and I love it!
