

DESCRIPTIVE TEXT: BAKPIA

ACTIVITY 1

JOGJA FOOD

Please read the text carefully and answer the question

SMALL QUIZ

1. Bakpia is a famous traditional snack from _____
2. Bakpia is a famous traditional snack from _____
3. The word “bak” means _____ and “pia” means _____.
4. One of the most famous places to buy bakpia is _____.
5. Bakpia Pathok is located near _____ Street.

LISTENING

Please listen the audio carefully and answer the question

1. Lina: Hi, _____! Have you ever eaten bakpia?
2. Dika: Yes, I have! It's from _____, right?
3. Lina: I bought _____ bean flavor.
4. Dika: My favorite is _____ flavor.
5. Bakpia is one of the best _____ from Jogja.

ABOUT BAKPIA

Bakpia is a famous traditional snack from Yogyakarta, Indonesia. It is a small, round pastry with a soft outer skin and a sweet filling inside. The most common filling is mung bean (kacang hijau), but nowadays there are many modern flavors such as chocolate, cheese, durian, and green tea. Bakpia is often enjoyed as a snack with tea or coffee and is also a popular souvenir for tourists who visit Jogja. Bakpia was first introduced to Yogyakarta by Chinese immigrants. The name “bakpia” comes from the Chinese words “bak” (meat) and “pia” (pastry). Over time, Indonesians adapted the recipe by using sweet mung bean instead of meat, making it suitable for everyone. One of the most famous places to buy bakpia is Bakpia Pathok, located near Malioboro Street.

...

AUDIO

ACTIVITY 2 FOOD QUIZ

PLEASE MATCH WITH THE CORRECT ANSWER

A spicy beef soup from Padang, Sumatra.

Sweet mung bean pastry from Yogyakarta.

Skewered grilled meat served with peanut sauce.

Young jackfruit stew from Yogyakarta with sweet coconut flavor.

Fish cake with vinegar sauce from Palembang.

Fried rice with spices and toppings.

Traditional Indonesian soup with herbs, chicken, or beef.

Mixed vegetables with peanut sauce.

Bakpia

Gudeg

Sate

Rendang

Pempek

Nasi Goreng

Soto

Gado-gado

MINI VLOG PROJECT

ACTIVITY 3

INSTRUCTIONS

- Please make a short video (2–3 minutes) about one traditional Indonesian food.
- You can use capcut to edit your video
- The video should include:
 - 1.The name of the food
 - 2.The region it comes from
 - 3.The ingredients and a short explanation of how it is made
 - 4.A unique fact or cultural story about the food
- Upload your video on tiktok
- Copy the link and then submit on google classroom

Drop your link here

