Help Harry to release the Wizarding World and protect Hogwarts from the Dark magic!

*Where do the Deadly Hallows come from?
Read the following story and find it out.*

Section R 1 (13 marks)

Read the following passage and answer all the questions.

The Tale of the Three Brothers

One day, three brothers were walking along a quiet road in the evening. They arrived at a big, dangerous river that was too deep to cross. But the brothers knew some magic, so they used it to make a bridge. When they were in the middle of the bridge, a dark figure appeared. It was Death! He was angry because the brothers had escaped him. But he pretended to be kind and said he would give each brother a special gift.

The oldest brother was very proud. He asked for a magic wand stronger than any other. Death gave him the Elder Wand. The second brother was selfish and wanted power. He asked for a stone to bring dead people back to life, so Death gave him the Resurrection Stone. The youngest brother was clever and didn't trust Death. He asked for something to hide from Death. Death, was not happy but gave him his own Invisibility Cloak.

Later, the brothers went their own ways. The oldest brother used his wand to fight an enemy, but that night someone killed him and stole the wand. The second brother used the stone to see the woman he loved, but she was sad and not really alive. He became unhappy and died too. The youngest brother lived a long life, and when he was old, he gave his cloak to his son. Then he met Death as a friend and went with him peacefully.
