

1. Why is Katie in China?

- A. She works there.
- B. She's visiting friends.
- C. She's on vacation.
- D. She studies there.

2. What is special about Katie's birthday this year?

- A. It's on the same day as the Moon Festival.
- B. Her best friend organized a surprise party.
- C. She got many presents.
- D. It's her first birthday abroad.

3. What is another name for the Moon Festival?

- A. Lantern Festival
- B. Mid-Autumn Festival
- C. Dragon Boat Festival
- D. Spring Festival

4. When do people in China celebrate the Moon Festival?

- A. Every July
- B. Every August
- C. Every September or October
- D. Every November

5. What is true about the Moon Festival?

- A. It always happens on the same date every year.
- B. It's more than 3,000 years old.
- C. People only celebrate it in Beijing.
- D. It's not related to the moon.

6. What food do people eat during the festival?

- A. Dumplings
- B. Rice balls
- C. Mooncakes
- D. Noodles

7. What do people use paper lanterns for?

- A. To decorate their homes
- B. To thank their children and bring happiness
- C. To scare away bad spirits
- D. To light the streets

8. What do dancers wear during the festival?

- A. Traditional Chinese clothes
- B. School uniforms
- C. Colorful costumes
- D. Black suits

9. How does Katie feel about this year's birthday?

- A. Bored
- B. Happy and excited
- C. Lonely
- D. Uninterested

10. Which sentence is NOT TRUE about the passage

- A. Katie sometimes celebrates her birthday with her mom.
- B. This year, Katie celebrates her birthday in China.
- C. People wear traditional clothes in this festival.
- D. She thinks that this is a wonderful birthday.

