

Multiple-Choice Exercise

1. What does the word "themes" mean?

- a) A type of food
- b) The main subject or message of a work
- c) People who buy products
- d) A memory from the past

2. Who are "clients"?

- a) People who use a service or advice from a professional
- b) Family members from past generations
- c) A type of computer program
- d) Students in a class

3. What does "recall" mean?

- a) To buy something
- b) To forget completely
- c) To remember something from the past
- d) To invite someone

4. If someone is "fascinated" by something, they are:

- a) Bored
- b) Extremely interested or attracted
- c) Angry
- d) Tired

5. Who are "ancestors"?

- a) People from past generations in your family
- b) Your best friends
- c) Teachers at school
- d) Famous celebrities

6. What does "widely used" mean?

- a) Rarely seen
- b) Something common or frequently used by many people
- c) A new invention
- d) Only for children

7. When something is "reflected," it is:

- a) Broken
- b) Shown or mirrored
- c) Ignored
- d) Lost

8. What is an "insight"?

- a) A deep understanding of a person, thing, or situation
- b) A tool for cutting paper
- c) A short story
- d) A type of color

9. What does "transition" mean?

- a) A change or shift from one state to another
- b) A party or celebration
- c) A type of song
- d) A large building