

Vocabulary

Describing a relationship

1 Choose the correct alternatives.

- Do you find it easy to meet/make friends with people in new situations?
- Joe and Billy often argue/get on about the housework.
- I hope we can meet/keep in touch after this course finishes.
- We try to go out with all our old/young friends once a year.
- I'm lucky that I keep/get on with all my colleagues.
- Let's see/meet up next week for a coffee.
- We'd love to see/argue with you all again at next year's conference.
- My boss keeps in touch/disagrees with everything I suggest.
- When I have a problem, I talk to my near/close friends.

2 Complete the sentences with the words in the box.

argue close disagree friend get on make meet see text touch

- I always _____ with my brother. He never listens to what I say!
- Children spend too much time on their phones. They _____ each other all the time.
- I see Ailsa every weekend – she's a really _____ friend.
- Why do you always _____ with everything I say?
- James is a great _____ – we _____ really well.
- I'm so sad you're leaving. Please keep in _____!
- I like trying new things because it's a good way to _____ new friends.
- I haven't seen you for months! Shall we _____ up soon?
- I _____ my sister about once a month – we usually go shopping together.

Grammar

Present perfect with for and since

3 Put the words in the correct order to make sentences.

- for a week / done / Sue / any homework / hasn't

- at / have / They / for two hours / the beach / been

- Dolly / for months / called / hasn't / me

- to university / has / lots of / Roger / since / friends / made / he went

- Jim / for five years / has / a dog / had

- sent / They / since / a birthday card / we argued / haven't / me

- in Argentina / for 15 years / lived / Ana / has

- we were / since / been / at school / We / close friends / have

4 Choose the correct alternatives.

- Greg and Christine have lived here for/since over five years.
- There hasn't been a new company director for/since 2015.
- I've known Michael for/since six months.
- Jude says he hasn't been in touch with his old classmates for/since a long time.
- He's been off work for/since Tuesday last week.
- We haven't eaten for/since eight o'clock this morning.
- I've been on holiday for/since 15th July.
- I've only worked here for/since a month.

5 Complete the conversation with the correct form of the verbs in brackets and for or since.

- A: Hey, Rory. How are you? I didn't know you worked here.
 B: Oh Pete. Yes, I¹ _____ (work) here² _____ a week now.
 A: Oh great! I³ _____ (be) here⁴ _____ June last year. I enjoy working here.⁵ _____ you _____ (move) to the area?
 B: Yes, I⁶ _____ (live) in the area⁷ _____ February. I love it!
 A: Great! And How's your sister? Is she still working in Australia?
 B: Yes, she⁸ _____ (be) there⁹ _____ three years now! I don't think she's going to come back!