Homework

The sentences below have a mistake. Choose the best option to correct the mistake.

1 They intend to finish the project last week, but they were delayed.

a were intend to b intended to

c didn't intend to

2 I wasn't trying to upset you. I was mean to help you.

a wasn't meaning to b meant

c didn't mean

3 Was she going pretend that nothing was wrong?

a Was she going to b She was going to c Is she going

4 They planning to visit us last summer, but they couldn't afford the plane tickets.

a plan

b planned

c are planning

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Complete the conversation with the correct form of was/were going to.

A: Hey Simon, sorry I didn't phone you yesterday. I [1] _____ call you after work, but it was late.

B: That's OK. How was your weekend?

A: It was good. I [2] _____ visit Karis in London, but the train was cancelled.

B: What a shame! What [3] _____ you _____ do with Karis?

A: We [4] _____ go to the new exhibition at the Science Museum and I was really looking forward to it.

B: What did you do instead?

A: I [5] _____ do anything, but then Martina called so I went to the cinema with her. We [6] _____ watch that new action film, but there weren't any tickets, so we saw a drama about a hoax instead. It was pretty good.

B: Oh, I want to watch that. I [7] _____ see it at the weekend, but I wasn't feeling well.

A: Are you feeling better now? Do you want to meet up later?

B: I [8] _____ do anything today, but sure! Where do you want to meet?

LIVEWORKSHEETS