

Homework

 The sentences below have a mistake. Choose the best option to correct the mistake.

- 1 They intend to finish the project last week, but they were delayed.
  - a were intend to
  - b intended to
  - c didn't intend to
- 2 I wasn't trying to upset you. I was mean to help you.
  - a wasn't meaning to
  - b meant
  - c didn't mean
- 3 Was she going pretend that nothing was wrong?
  - a Was she going to
  - b She was going to
  - c Is she going
- 4 They planning to visit us last summer, but they couldn't afford the plane tickets.
  - a plan
  - b planned
  - c are planning

Complete the conversation with the correct form of was/were going to.

A: Hey Simon, sorry I didn't phone you yesterday.
I <sup>1</sup> ..... call you after work, but it was late.

B: That's OK. How was your weekend?

A: It was good. I <sup>2</sup> ..... visit Karis in London, but the train was cancelled.

B: What a shame! What <sup>3</sup> ..... you
..... do with Karis?

A: We <sup>4</sup> ..... go to the new exhibition at the Science Museum and I was really looking forward to it.

B: What did you do instead?

A: I <sup>5</sup> ..... do anything, but then Martina called so I went to the cinema with her. We <sup>6</sup> ..... watch that new action film, but there weren't any tickets, so we saw a drama about a hoax instead. It was pretty good.

B: Oh, I want to watch that. I <sup>7</sup> ..... see it at the weekend, but I wasn't feeling well.

A: Are you feeling better now? Do you want to meet up later?

B: I <sup>8</sup> ..... do anything today, but sure! Where do you want to meet?