

Choose the correct answer:

1- Which sentence is the most polite way to make a request?

- |                               |  |                                     |                                    |
|-------------------------------|--|-------------------------------------|------------------------------------|
| a. Where is the water? | b. I would like a glass of water, please. | c. Give me a glass of water. | d. I want a glass of water. |
|-------------------------------|--|-------------------------------------|------------------------------------|

2- Which of the following is a non-count noun?

- |               |                  |                  |                  |
|---------------|------------------|------------------|------------------|
| a. egg | b. potato | c. cheese | d. tomato |
|---------------|------------------|------------------|------------------|

3- 'I don't have ___ money.

- |             |              |                |               |
|-------------|--------------|----------------|---------------|
| a. a | b. an | c. some | d. any |
|-------------|--------------|----------------|---------------|

4- Which sentence is correct?

- |                              |                                |                                 |                                |
|------------------------------|--------------------------------|---------------------------------|--------------------------------|
| a. Are there a fries? | b. There is some juice. | c. I would like a water. | d. There are some rice. |
|------------------------------|--------------------------------|---------------------------------|--------------------------------|

5- How do you make the non-count noun 'cake' countable?

- |                      |                     |                           |                     |
|----------------------|---------------------|---------------------------|---------------------|
| a. a lot cake | b. any cakes | c. a piece of cake | d. two cakes |
|----------------------|---------------------|---------------------------|---------------------|

2- Write ( True ) or ( False ):

1- 'Give me your credit card.' is a polite way to ask for something in a hotel. (       )

2- The noun 'apple' is a non-count noun. (       )

3- We use 'any' in affirmative (+) sentences. (       )

4- 'I'd like' is a contraction of 'I had like'. (       )

5- Count nouns have both singular and plural forms. (       )