

Grammar Form and Meaning

TOEIC Listening Test - Part 1

Instructions:

This worksheet has two parts.

- Part 1: Match the Description to its technical Grammatical Form (A-I).
- Part 2: Match the Description to its communicative Grammatical Meaning/Function (J-N).

Part 1: Matching Descriptions to Grammatical Forms

Description		Grammatical Form
1. The sun has set behind the mountains.
2. The children are playing happily in the park.
3. A new bicycle will be purchased tomorrow.		A. Present Simple
4. The coffee machine is being repaired right now.		B. Present continuous, passive
5. She goes to the gym every morning.		C. Present perfect
6. The tickets are going to be mailed next week.		D. Past perfect, passive
7. The house had been abandoned for years.		E. Future with "going to", passive
8. He is about to give his presentation.		F. Present continuous
9. The keys were found under the cushion.		G. Past Simple, passive
		H. Future Simple, passive
		I. Future with "about to"

Part 2: Matching Descriptions to Grammatical Meaning/Function

Description		Grammatical Meaning/Function
10. There is milk in the fridge.
11. The train has just arrived at the platform.		J. To describe something that happens habitually or is a fact.
12. She is studying for her final exam.		K. To indicate something that is likely to happen soon.
13. He is going to call his mother tonight.

14. The office opens at 9:00 AM every day.	L. To describe something that has recently happened or is completed now. M. To talk about existence or location. N. To describe what is happening at the moment of speaking.
---	---