Unit 4 – Review

I: Interviewer D: Daniela

I: So, Daniela, I'm sure a lot of students .... to be interested in the movie-making course you've just ..... Let me ask you first, why did you decide ..... take the course?

D: Well, I've always been ..... in making movies and videos. I ..... a lot on social ..... and I wanted to learn some tricks for how to get better at it, so that I ..... get more followers. But you can take the course if you're a complete beginner, too.

I: OK. And who ..... the course? Were they all professionals?

D: Um—it was mixed. There ..... some young people teaching particular topics and we also ..... some talks about how to make money from your ..... media profile. But the important thing is that people who are already successful give you their ..... on your movie. That part was ..... by people in the movie business.

I: And was it all new for you? ..... anything surprise you?

D: Well, I knew it would be practical, so I wasn't ..... that the focus wasn't on creativity. I thought we would all be working on our own, but we ..... a lot of teamwork, which was great. Of course, every project ..... a long time, but we got good results!

Unit 4 – Review

I: And you ..... your own movie, didn't you? How was that done?

D: Yeah, I did, but we ..... each other and shared the filming. The course lets you borrow all the cameras you need, which is good because they cost a lot of money! I ..... the final scene of my movie by the ocean. It was .....!

I: And you had to take the course online, didn't you?

D: Yes, we ..... to work in groups online because everyone was in a different place. That was good because it was quick. We always shared and commented on each other's work in the movie club at my school, so I was ..... to that. The most important thing for me was that we actually got to ..... to the teachers by ourselves and that really helped.

I: So, what about the future?

D: Well, I want ..... do something different, so the more advanced course doesn't really interest me. I'd like to know more about other aspects of making a movie, like how you can use the clothes ..... wear to show what they are like as people. My friend is making a movie now so I'm ..... to see what I can learn .....!
