33 AMAZONIA

1. It is one of the largest predators in the Amazon rainforest. It lives in lakes, streams and slow-moving rivers. It generally hunts at night and kills the prey by drowning it. It carries its newly hatched young ones in its mouth.

   _____

2. This is a colourful bird with a short and thick neck and short legs. Astoundingly, its bill is about half the length of its body. Despite its appearance, the bill is actually light weight because it is made up of a spongy tissue called Keratin.

   _____

3. It is one of the most ferocious freshwater fish. It has razor-like teeth and a powerful jaw which can shred flesh and bones in a matter of seconds. Its teeth are used to make tools and weapons.

   _____

4. This is an incredible translucent animal found in the Amazon rainforest. One can see its heart, liver and other internal organs through its belly.

   _____

5. Its is the world's largest rodent. it can grow up to 4.4 feet in length and weight up to 66 kg. It is a herbivorous semi-aquatic animal.

   _____

HELP LINE Red-bellied Piranha, Glass Frog, Toucan, Capybara, Black caiman

LIVEWORKSHEETS