5 PRIMATES

Primates are animals belonging to a group of mammals that includes human beings, apes and monkeys. They are the most intelligent and the most highly developed animals.

Some clues about monkeys and apes are given below. Identify them and write their names. Take help from the Help line.

1. It is the only species of apes found in India.

   _____

2. This large primate is facing a grave threat due to the large scale destruction of rain forests in Indonesia and Malaysia.

   _____

3. This monkey gives a howling call to other monkey from a distance of 3 miles away.

   _____

4. This is first primate to be rocketed into space.

   _____

5. This is the nocturnal primate which is hunted because it is believed that its large eyes can cure many eye ailments.

   _____

6. It is the largest primate which can glow over 2 m in height and can weight over 220 kgs.

   _____

7. This primates are found in Madagascar. It has a typical long tail and a pointed snout nose.

   _____

8. This ape resembles like human and is the most intelligent.

   _____

Chimpanzee

Ringtailed Lemur

Orangutan

Howler Monkey

Slender Loris

Gorilla

Rhesus Monkey

Hoolock Gibbon

HELP LINE

Chimpanzee	Orangutan	Ringtailed Lemur	Howler Monkey
Slender Loris	Gorilla	Hoolock Gibbon	Rhesus Monkey

LIVEWORKSHEETS