Discovering the Old Town

No one should go to Kraków, Poland, without visiting its Old Town (Europe's largest market square) and the nearby area. You can easily spend an afternoon—or even a day—seeing the sights: theaters, castles, interesting houses, and more. In the center of the square is Kraków Cloth Hall, home to the National Museum. Next to the square is St. Mary's Basilica, which has two towers. You should try to be there when music plays from the taller tower.

The historical sites are amazing, but don't forget to relax while you are in the Old Town. Enjoy the beautiful flowers in shops across the market or try a bagel. Some people say there is a bagel seller every few steps, so you are going to have many chances! At the end of the day, you can even ride in a cart pulled by a horse to go back to your hotel.
